

PREMIER EXHIBITOR AWARD

A Premier Exhibitor Award will be awarded to promote entries in the McDonald County Fair. To be eligible, an exhibitor must exhibit/participate in a minimum of five different areas at the fair, but can collect points on no more than two exhibits in each division; must sell a minimum of 30 raffle tickets; must help set-up and clean-up Mondays before and after the fair; and must indicate on entry form that they are competing for Premier Exhibitor Award. Raffle tickets and money must be turned in to fair secretary. Point system will be 3 points for first place, 2 points for second place, and 1 point for third place. Points may be accumulated in any competitive contest at the fair such as livestock judging, showmanship, etc. Each department superintendent is to keep a record of exhibitors and points in their department and turn them in to the fair secretary, who will tally points. Only McDonald County residents are eligible for the Premier Exhibitor Award.

Prize money will be: 1st - $50 • 2nd - $30 • 3rd - $20

HERDSMAN AWARD

(Individual Award)

Purpose: To encourage young people to work with their animals with kindness and gentleness but firmness; to promote ease of handling; and to promote proper care and training.

Eligibility: The award is presented to the youth, not to the animal. The animal will not be judged for conformation or quality. The animal itself will be judged only for:

- a. The animal's response to its owner.
- b. How well the youth has done with what he/she has to work with.
- c. Gentleness and workability of the animal in and out of the ring.

1. Care of Stall
  - a. Cleaned at all times
  - b. Properly bedded
  - c. Equipment picked up
  - d. Box for storage of equipment
2. Care of Animal
  - a. Watered and fed
  - b. Made comfortable
  - c. Gentle
3. Courteous to all exhibitors
4. Courteous to public and answers questions
5. Behavior of exhibitor

JUDGING STANDARDS

1. How well the youth has done with what he/she has to work with. Not all youth can afford the registered or purebred animal, but he/she still may do a good job of caring for and training the animal.....50
2. How well the animal is trained and responds to its owner. Gentleness and workability of the animal in and out of the show ring, reflecting the training given to it by its owner. Disposition of animal reflecting owner's care.....30
3. The care the animal received during the Fair (clean stall, fresh water, feed, and hay). Clean animal, well brushed, and conditioned (according to class).....10
4. If youth has done all the work of caring for animal during Fair with NO adult help.....10
- Possible score.....100

Two herdsman buckles will be awarded. One to the Beef and Dairy sections combined and one to the Sheep, Goat, and Swine sections combined. Those who have won the herdsman trophy/buckle are not eligible to win it a second time in that particular division.
