

YOUTH LIVESTOCK DIVISION

General Rules of Fair apply. Stalls will be pre-assigned by show committee. Steers will be weighed, mouthed, and checked Friday at 9:30 a.m. NO animals in stalls until checked in with department superintendent. Missouri health regulations can be found at mcmofair.com. All Missouri health regulations will be followed.

Entry deadline is July 1. All late entries will be charged a $5.00 late penalty fee.

Livestock must be in place by 6:00 p.m. on Thursday and will not be released until immediately following the premium sale or 10:00 p.m., whichever is latest. If livestock or tack is removed before this time, all trophies, ribbons, and premiums will be forfeited.

All exhibitors must keep hold of halter while showing in the ring. Exhibitors of male animals will be responsible for restraint and safe precautions of their animals.

Exhibitors must be able to prove ownership of animal for a minimum of 60 days prior to the Fair by cancelled check, registration papers, notarized statement, and/or bill of sale. Bucket calves less than 60 days old still need to be able to prove ownership.

All animals exhibited must have proof of age either by registration papers or have a signed statement from the breeder.

Animals showing in a breed class must have registration papers in exhibitor's name or have a signed statement from the breeder stating the animal's age and that the animal is a purebred animal, or they will be shown in cross or other class.

Trophies will not be given unless at least three (3) animals are exhibited in a particular breed.

Unethical fitting will be deemed to consist of any method altering the natural conformation of any part of the animal's body. Any attempts to change the degree of firmness of an individual animal will also be deemed unethical.

Stalls must be cleaned before premium checks are released. Steer weights must be turned in to Beef Superintendent. A 4% tolerance will be allowed to steer exhibitors.

All clipping blocking chutes must stay in the designated area on the east end of the livestock barn. This will be enforced.

Class premiums will be paid only on classes listed in the book. Regardless of the number of entries in a class, livestock exhibitors will be paid for no more than two placings per class. Money for placings will be distributed by the department superintendents during release time.

Exhibitors participating in the Premium Sale must present their animal by themselves at the Premium Sale.

All exhibitors exhibiting swine, sheep, goats, beef, dairy, bucket calf, little flock, and/or horses must be five years of age or older by July 1, 2019, to exhibit the above referenced at the fair, unless otherwise provided for herein.

All livestock trailers must park in designated areas. No parking will be allowed on the South side of the fair building. Any livestock trailer parked in a non-designated area will be towed at the owner's expense.

Exhibitors must sell a minimum of ten raffle tickets for the McDonald County Fair to be eligible for the McDonald County Premium Sale. Exhibitors must turn in the raffle tickets to the fair secretary prior to Thursday, July 18, 2019 at 9:00 pm.

ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS

Only livestock exhibitors of the McDonald County Fair will be allowed to show/exhibit an animal in any livestock show or showmanship contest at the McDonald County Fair. Any livestock exhibitors with multiple animals in any given class must have another McDonald County Fair livestock exhibitor show/exhibit his or her animal(s) in the arena. Any livestock exhibitor that allows a person, that is not a McDonald County Fair livestock exhibitor, show/exhibit his or her animal in any livestock show or showmanship contest will forfeit all trophies, ribbons, and premiums, including any premium sale premiums and/or add-ons.

BUCKET CALF DIVISION

Interview 5:00 p.m. Friday

Judging 6:00 p.m. Friday

Superintendent - Samantha Sherman

Purposes:

1. Since the Bucket Calf Division was created to judge the individual exhibitor, not the animal, each exhibitor will be limited to one entry only.
2. To design a cattle project to fit the physical size and maturity level of younger youth.
3. To teach proper health care and nutritional requirements of younger cattle.
4. To teach basic management skills without a large investment.
5. To provide a better understanding of cattle.
6. To teach the child to relay information learned about the calf to the judge when asked.
7. To assist the child in learning to concentrate on an object and the environment they are in.
8. To teach the proper use of show equipment (I.E. combs, show sticks, etc.).
9. To teach the exhibitor how to show their animal using proper show techniques (I.E. walking in reverse, setting their calf up).

Rules:

1. All calves must be halter broke.
2. Calves must have been bottle or bucket fed. No calves may be left on the cow.
3. Calves must be born after April 1, 2019.
4. Bull and heifer calves will be shown in their respective classes together. Beef and dairy calves will be shown together as well.
5. Proper use of show equipment is strongly encouraged. (I.E. show sticks, combs, etc.)
6. Proper show technique is strongly encouraged. (I.E. walking in reverse, setting the calf up.)
7. All participants are required to have fun.
8. All participants are required to display a poster (containing pictures about the calf and exhibitor) at all times.

Judging Criteria:

1. What the youth has learned about caring for and raising their calf.
2. Fitting and showing according to either beef or dairy guidelines, with emphasis on how much the youth can do without help. However, parental guidance is encouraged.
3. The general health of the calf and knowledge of the youth in health related areas.
4. The quality of the calf will not be considered, since purchase was not made on that basis.
5. Originality of their poster giving the animal's name and any other information desired. These posters must be displayed above the stall at the fair and include pictures taken during the project.
6. How well the youth keeps their animal and stall clean during the fair.

General Information:

1. Please include your child's age and birthdate on their entry form.
2. Any calves that meet the requirements for the junior dairy show are eligible to enter their respective class as well.
3. Beef calf exhibitors will not be allowed to enter the beef show.
4. Each child will be interviewed on a one-on-one basis about their calf by the judge.
5. Help for your child while in the ring will be provided if needed.
6. Stalls are pre-assigned. All calves will be stalled together.

Divisions:

Children 5 years old and 6 years old

Children 7 years old to 8 years old

Buckle Sponsor:
